1. FIRST SIGHT

I believed in pain, until I saw your eyes,
Had chances of losing, so never rolled the dice,

I need your pain, to make feel you light,
I have to say, you're the one I'll never fight,

From the recess to the lunch breaks,
Getting in your class, to raise your dumb grades,
I never think of the consequences,

From the sweet dreams to all nightmares,
You were there all, holding my hands,
I guess you were answer to my incompetences,

It was something at the first sight,
But what I wasn't sure was love,
But you were there in all my mind,
And seeing you with someone else was tough,

So I made up my mind,
And I'm writing these lines,
Cause I know I'll never say to you,
That I love you,
Can you love me back,
You complete me,
You're the one I only lack,

From your dark days to your bright nights,
I'll be there, with you every time,
I'll make sure, you're always fine,
Can you make sure, to remain mine,
Till last of our breaths....

2. IF I COULD

Even if I say, I don't love her,
I can say at the same time , I'm lying,
Even if I say, I don't wanna touch her,
I can say at the same time, I'm dying,
I can say her, I love you,
But the fact is I'm shying,
I can say her, I hate you,
But the fact is I'm lying,

If you could love me, nothing can be better,
If I could write you, a single open letter,
If I could wife you, nothing can be better,
Except your damn smile, nothing matter,

I don't wanna see you sad,
Your sadness makes me mad,
I don't wanna be that guy,
Who say I don't fucking care,
If you die, if you live,
I'll do the same for you,
I know you'll not understand,

But god knows, he knows me,
But god knows, he owns me,

If you could love me, nothing can be better,
If I could write you, a single open letter,
If I could wife you, nothing can be better,
Except your damn smile, nothing matter,

If I could get your pain,
If I could get your tears,
If I could your blames,
If I could get your fears...

3. COMMITMENT

Is life a journey, or a drive-through the flashbacks,
They do it for the love, still keep an eye like black bags,

They got a list,
List of promises, which were meant to be broken,
List of dreams, which were going to be shattered,
And it was sex,
for them that actually mattered,

A boy committed to a girl, that girl committed to a number of boys,
He tried to keep his cool, but how the fuck he when there was too much of noise,

He gave his all, in a hope that the girl will fall,
He knew she was using her, still he loved her calls,
He said fuck the cause, it didn't matter why she talk to him,
He just praised the lord, Ok Ok, might another Ye and Kim...

4. STAY

Two hearts never break the same,
It was never about the game,
You can never feel the pain,
Of someone who is crying,

If you ever stayed the same,
I'll skip my part of fame,
I'll take your every fucking blame,
And for this, I'm not lying,

So,
Can you please stay?
Can you please stay?
My head in your lap,
Can't we live in this way?
Can you please stay?
My hands in your hands,
Can't we live in this way?

The way you look at stars,
Is the way I look at you,
And at the same time,
We both say, oh god, so beautiful,

The way I pray for you,
Is the way I pray for few,
All I know is you,
I'm in love with, the shape of you,

So,
Can you please stay?
Can you please stay?
My head in your lap,
Can't we live in this way?
Can you please stay?
My hands in your hands,
Can't we live in this way?

5. CAMEO

Time, isn't healing my wounds,
Fire, is there all in the woods,
No one, can wear my shoes,
Normal, to cry on the cues,
Are we all holding tears ?
Are we all keeping fears ?
No one knows what one bears,
Sometimes life is just about peers,

It's agony to hate her,
Still I have to,
She knows I love her,
To get her, what should I do,
What should I do?

I wanted a cameo,
In her bright life,
I wanted a cameo,
In her dark nights,
It's all life, the fake hype,
If I'm too good, we ain't alike,
If I'm too bad, it's not her type,
This is psyche, shit that's life,

I don't wanna be like this to her,
She's in front of me, still I can't express to her,
They think I ruin things for fun,
Everyone is fake, oh god I'm done,

I wanted a cameo,
In her bright life,
I wanted a cameo,
In her dark nights,
It's all life, the fake hype,
If I'm too good, we ain't alike,
If I'm too bad, it's not her type,
This is psyche, shit that's life,

6. IS IT OVER?

I used to love her everyday, every night, every time,
She was there, in my dreams, in my lows, in my every line,
She was the cure to my pain, used to make me fine, every time,
Now we talk no more, I think it's just all about time, about time,

I chose to stay away, cause I don't want to ruin the memories she gave me,
I left the stage away, cause I don't want to go in the spot, people want to frame me,

But still, every time, I wish to see her,
But still, every time, I wish to be hers,
Letting her go away from my vision is my only fear,
But still, no one knows, what my heart bears,

Is it over?
Please tell me no,
I know you'll come back
and say that you were just kidding,
Is it for ever?
Please tell me no,
I know you'll come back
and say that together we are befitting,

These lights have started turning off,
Stars have started to losing their shine,
Hearts might have parted burning off,
I have started to choosing other's fine,

These days not become nights until I see you,
You outstanding like a moon to me in the darkness,
Sun rays don't become moonlight until I see you,
You outlandish like a boon to me in the darkness,

But still, every time, I wish to see her,
But still, every time, I wish to be hers,
Letting her go away from my vision is my only fear,
But still, no one knows, what my heart bears,

Is it over?
Please tell me no,
I know you'll come back
and say that you were just kidding,
Is it for ever?
Please tell me no,
I know you'll come back
and say that together we are befitting...

7. HEAVEN TO HELL

Whenever I see your eyes, I manifest it as heaven,
You're warmest wonder over all pre-existing seven,

We are not together, maybe we'll never,
But if you see me someday, just take a look and smile,
The never ending wait and the pain will be worthwhile,
I have your number on my speed dial,
But that's the number I never dialed,

It's the life, we never get to choose,
If you ever loved someone, why they're person you lose,
You can't fight for your love, without facing boos,
You can laugh at me, still it's hard to walk in my shoes,

If I could see you for one more day,
It's the prayer, I've been chanting for hundred days,
But still I can't find a way,
This heart is heavy, feels like lavender haze,

I can see you with that light stress and that black dress in my dreams,
As a person you're more beautiful is what I feel,
But that's not the way you show yourself,
You're part of a group, that lows you well,
But you're happy with that, and here I feel like hell...

8. A FALLEN ANGEL

Listen carefully, let me tell you a story,
About how did an angel lost all her glory,

In beautiful heaven, where glories bloom,
An angel once danced, consumed by gloom,

It was the time, she was at peak,
She had the shine, she was the queen,

With eyes that sparkled, she sought the room,
But her life was a lie, suddenly luck goes boom,

Descending through shadows, her eyes turned ember,
As they say, A fallen angel in the night's cold chamber.

From grace she fell, in darkness she wept,
Yet in shadows, a redemption story was crept,

But little did they know, a twist in the game,
Her regained glory held a secret, a hidden flame.

In the realm of shadows, a beast she did find,
A creature enchanted, love not so kind.

With eyes of longing, the beast fell deep,
For the angel's beauty, a love to keep.

Yet betrayal brewed in her heart so cold,
Beast was shocked with a move so bold,

There's something still unsaid and still untold,
A fallen angel, finding warmth in the cold.
