

OCEAN OF POEMS

THE CONCEPT OF LIFE

NEVER JUDGE LIFE WITHOUT LIVING IT
(ENGLISH EDITION)

ARYAN JAISWAL

FEW WORDS

There are 15 poems in this album.

I just want to say a thing;
Don't Judge Without
Reading

It's a humble request to read it full, and I hope you'll love it.

1. PEACE

Stop the time, give me some peace,
Everybody's stressed in search of some ease,
Let's hit those roads, which makes Jesus jeez,
Let's become unfiltered, let others please,

Everyday I'm stressed for the same things,
Everyday I'm scared what if my fame shrinks,
Being alone and left alone aren't the same things,
Those who escaped hard work, became memes,

My insecurities always stop me,
They think I'm a free man,
But my freedom always locks me,
I'm not allowed to live life,
These are some orders by my inner self,
How could I except from others ?
When I'm not standing up for my help,

A laugh on the face, but fear in the heart,
Getting hit every time like I'm the centre of the dart,
You know it's hard, but if there is god,
I want to bless him me with peace,
If not pizzas & ease, then with some white bread and cheese....

2. A FAILED MOVE ON

I always try to move on,
But there's something in you,
Every day you hurt me,
But everyday it's new,

I was sticking to you, like dew on a leaf,
I just cared for you, but you said I'm cheap,

I know it was tough to love me the same way I'd loved you,
But I never wanted that,

I just wanted, you always hold my hand,
I always just tried to complete all your demands,
Was I that bad or is it bad to be too good?
In your love, I was so mad, but you were too rude,

I hated myself till the day I started to hate you,
You were with someone who never loved you,
At that moment, I was angry but sedate too,
Cause I cannot escape the place I've never reached,
I cannot shape something I've never stitched,
I cannot crack that deal I've never pitched,
You always ghosted me I've never ditched,

3. SPEECH OF A BROKEN HEART

This world makes me laugh on myself,
They never understood why I hide status of my health,
Words are my wealth, but I talk in actions,
I wasn't staring at you, it wasn't just attraction,

You got a purple heart beside your name in my contact list,
No one ever got that besides you,
No matter where you go, you'll always reside as my unfulfilled wish,
I'm an artist, but an artist cannot D-sides you,

It's hard to face and forget you,
It's hard to love and let you,
Let you go with someone else who never prayed to god for you,
And congratulations, you made an atheist pray to god (for you),

I loved you like no one did,
But you never loved me,
And I was hoping the same,
So it's alright kid,
It's alright kid,

Love cannot be forced,
Feelings cannot be divorced,
You can regret if you want,
But if the love was true,
It shouldn't be remorseful....

4. ATHEIST

I'm the one who believed in god

But currently I not,

I'm done with all the false shits,

It is me even if I'm wrong,

My failures were mine deeds,

But my achievements were god's gift,

I was down with dust, why didn't god uplift?

I was always busy, like a labour in life shift,

Have seen bad ones living life,

And the good ones struggling,

Have seen happiness juggling,

And the sadness smuggling,

Who forced this wave in my life?

Who gave this rage in my eyes?

In my every little success, why I see the lies?

Why there's one who has to demise in my every rise,

If it is God's gift,

Then why only some people got this,

In greed of God's gift,

Rushes in temples are like a mosh pit,

A mob lynch, and an innocent died,

A God's gift, that an innocent dies ?

5. DEVIL & ANGEL

Hi, it's me,

How're you?

I'm free,

Hi, it's me,

I'm fine,

But you're not free,

Devil, just chill,

No need to think negative,

No need to pray for someone's fall,

everyone is our relative,

Hey Angel, here you go wrong,

One cannot be relative if he is competitive,

You cannot stay so long,

If you're trying to be a love representative,

Devil, there's no need to earn everything,

If we'll spread love, we can earn respect of every being,

Everything in our life has a good meaning,

Just be yourself and stop scheming,

Angel, I know you wanna stay strong,

But it's fact that you're wrong,

On someday, you'll fall, and you'll feel,

You'll got such pains that'll be hard to heal,

Look Devil, I don't want to fight with you,
But you don't need hate, if there's something you pursue,
And you've to be good and you have to show virtue,
If you get hate from someone, just say I didn't heard you,

Angel, I tried and you said you don't wanna fight,
And that's a fact, darkness overshadows light,
At the end everyone is hated in everyone's sight,
If you gonna sell love, you cannot achieve height,

6. SHE

Whenever she passes by me,
My heart just beats so fast,
My legs start shivering,
I feel like these days are last,

She moves so fast, Now-a-days she's with a new one,
She's so cute, but her acts are nuisance,
I'm in love with her, then why'll I want a new one,
But she's so godly, and I'm so human,

She is the one, she is the one,
We are living on earth, she makes it heaven,
She's a blessing, she is the sun,
This world is so boring, she makes it a fun,
She's the one,

Her eyes are more prettier than a diamond,
Her voice can make crazy a fine man,
She's a beauty like she was God's assignment,
How one cannot love her, heart is her confinement,

Her pictures are my confidante,
They ask me did you move on?
The fact is I also can't say,

I'm saving her pictures,
They're my memories,
Her hand in my hand,
My head in her lap,
These are nothing, just my fantasies,

I want to lose in her eyes,
I want her to choose me as shoulder whenever she cries,
I will make sure, her tears don't touch the ground,
If I ever believe in superstition, then she'll be the only good luck I found,

She is the one, she is the one,
We are living on earth, she makes it heaven,
She's a blessing, she is the sun,
This world is so boring, she makes it a fun,
She's the one,

7. FICTIONAL MEET-UP

If tomorrow, we'll come across,
I just want you to look at me and smile,
I don't want you to wave a hi,
Cause I know the fact, you can never be mine,

I'm jealous and I'll be jealous with the every guy you'll ever be with,

Everyday I love you, & everyday I feel we can't be fit,
It was my fear what if I forget you ?

I'm used to letting go people and that's why I let you,

But if you'll be the same person tomorrow,
Maybe we'll hug each other and exchange some kisses,
Even if we not talk for ages, you'll always have my best of the wishes,

If you get some unusual hiccups, ignore it,
Maybe I would've been thinking about you,
If you get to know about my love, ignore it,
Cause you don't need me, and I can love you without you,

A person with long hair, wearing a grey hoodie, is sitting on a wooden bench in a field of tall, dry grass. The background shows a blue sky with soft, white clouds. The text is overlaid on the image in a black, handwritten-style font.

But remember one thing,
You are my whole and soul,
You are my hope and dope,
If I'm a sea, you're my only shore,

I'm pretty sure now,
Even if I catch Amnesia, I'll still remember you,
I can love and care you at the same time,
But I'll never bother you,

So if someday, we'll meet,
And you're with someone else,
Just give me a smile and I'll live my whole life with it,
And if someday, we'll meet,
And by God's grace, you're single,
Just give me a chance to hold your hand and my whole life I'll be holding it,

8. IT WAS LOVE

If you let them go for their happiness, it was love,

If you tried to forget them but failed, it was love,

If you always did something not cause it made you better just because it was needed for them,

It was love,

If without them, life was tough, It was love,

Just to make them feel special,

If you ever crossed a line,

It was love,

Just to make them feel good,

If you ever setup things,

It was love,

If something was unsaid,

Still you heard them,

It was love,

If they were sad and,

You made yourself a joke to just make them laugh,

It was love,

If you were happy to lose you wins for them,

It was love,

If you were happy to choose them over anything,

It was love,

If you ever tried best just to see them smile,

It was love,

If you ever became uneasy because of their absence,

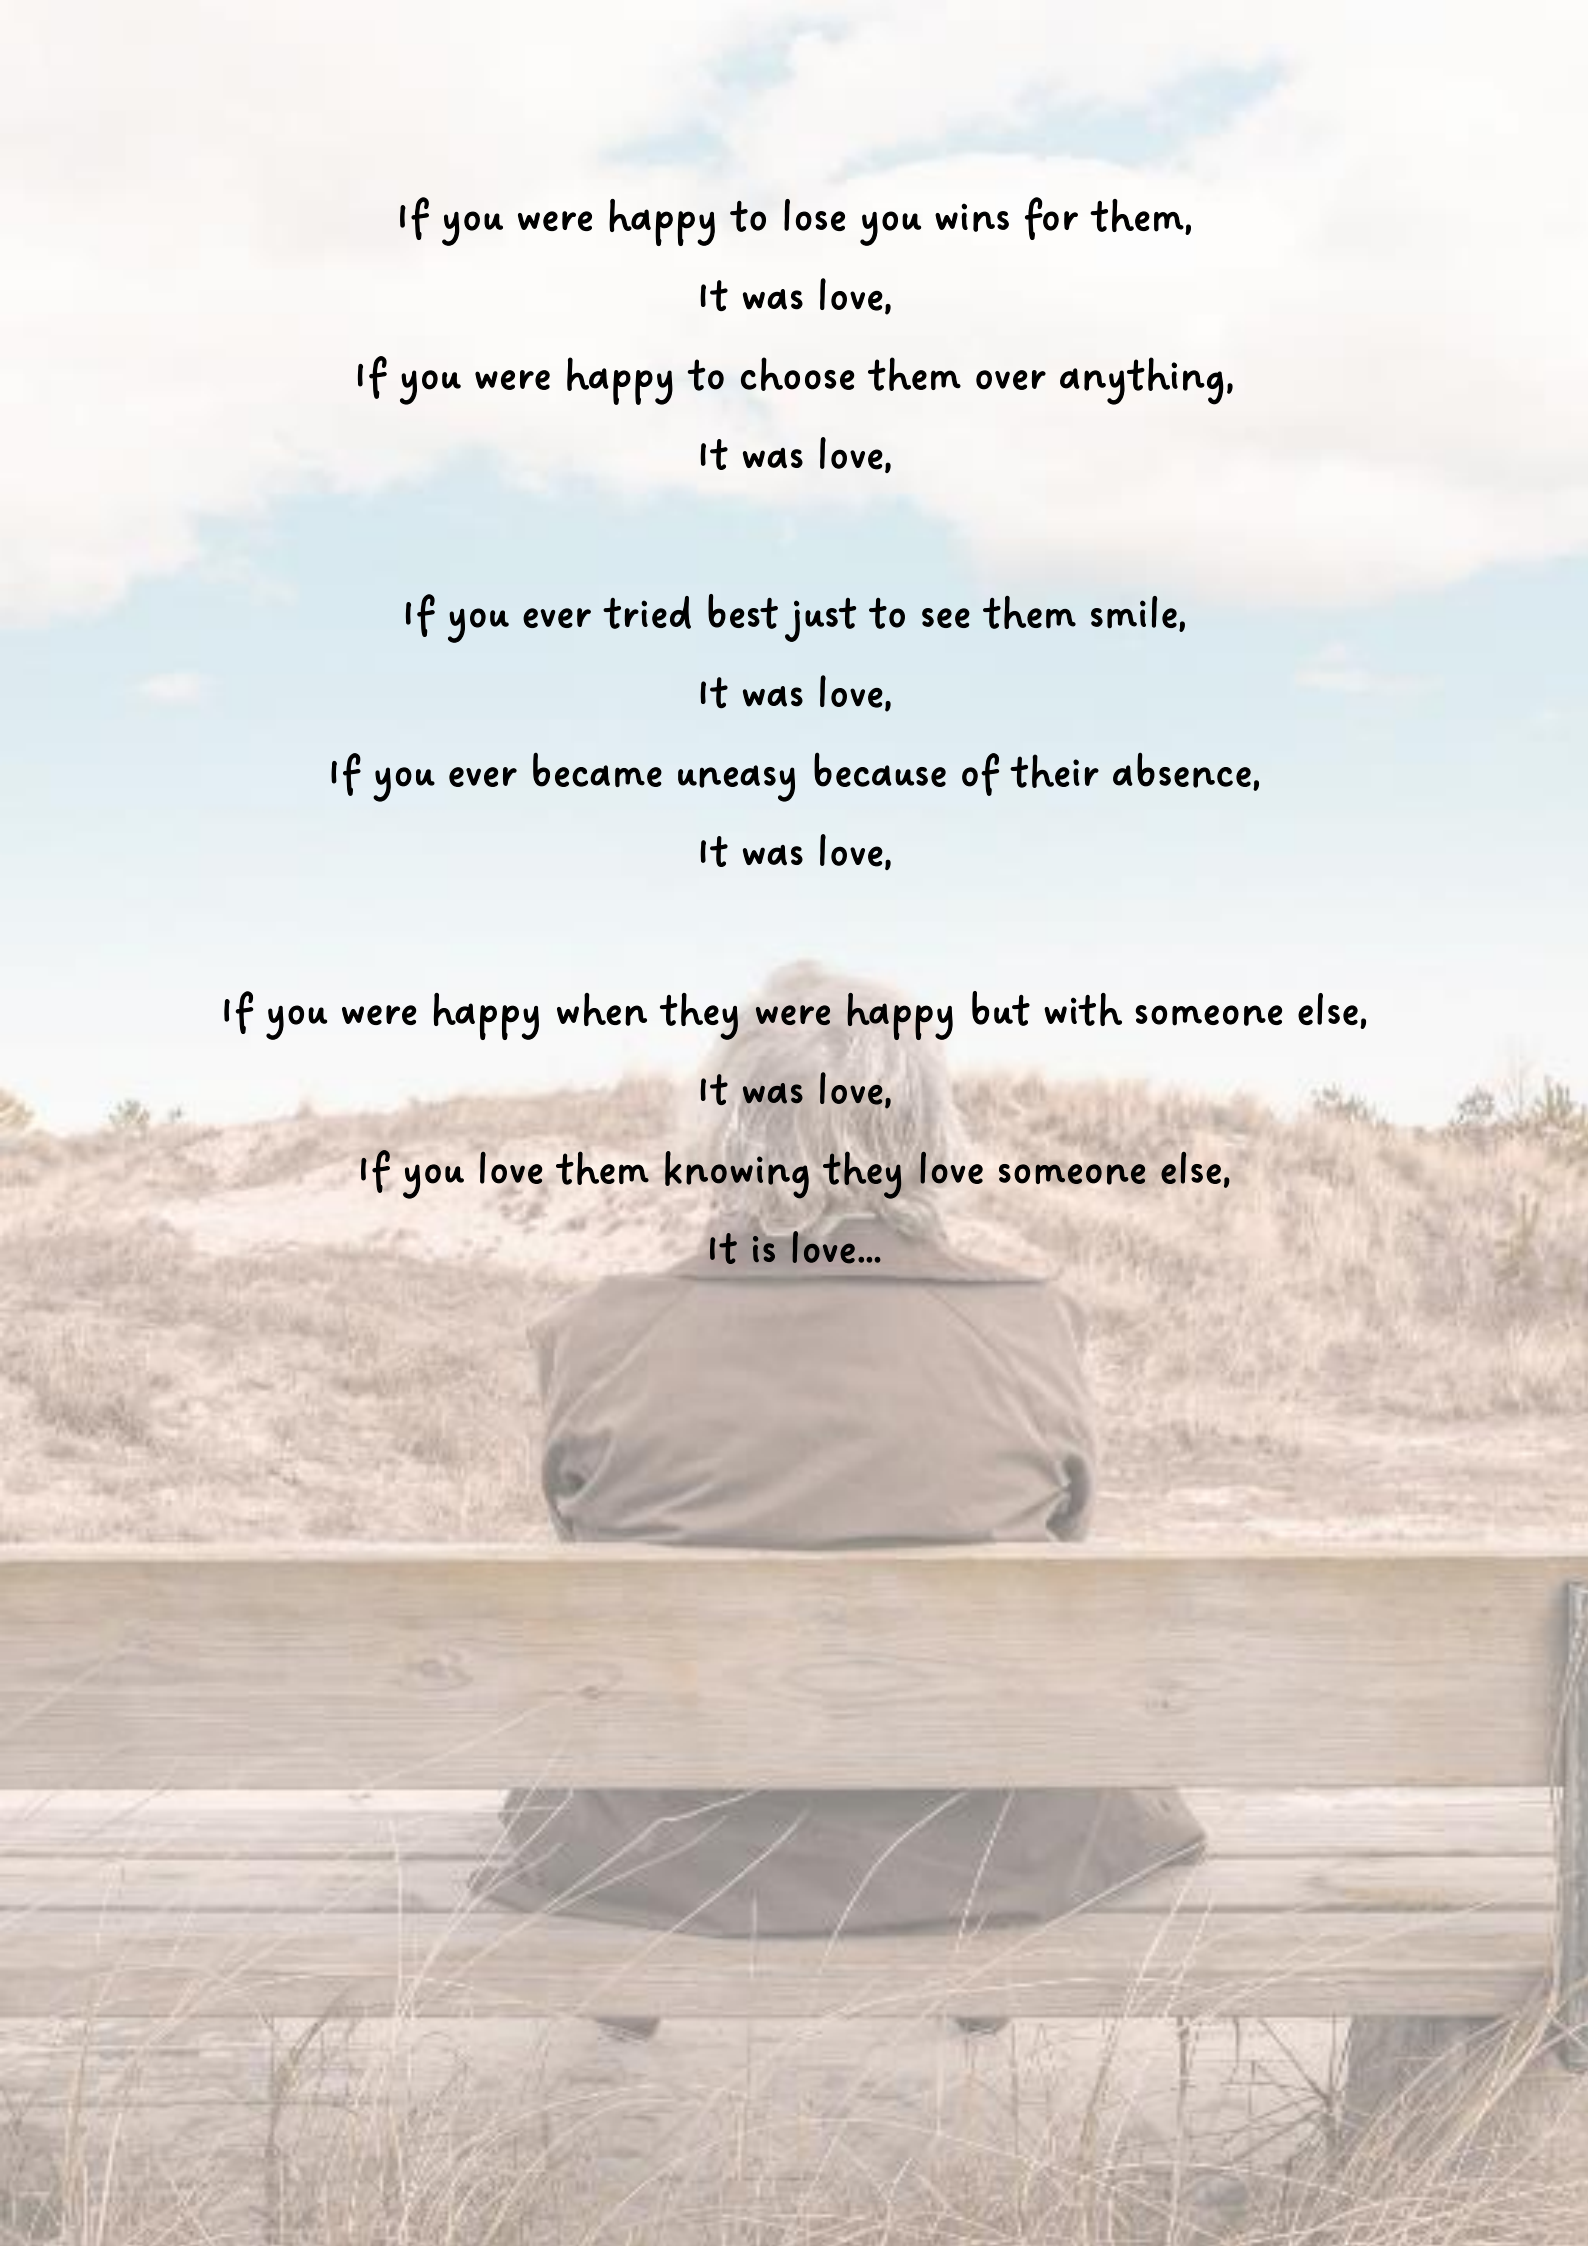

It was love,

If you were happy when they were happy but with someone else,

It was love,

If you love them knowing they love someone else,

It is love...

9. HER SINGLE MESSAGE

My days of hard work just to ignore her gets wasted,

By her single message,

My heart pumps so fast even if she looks at me,

And she takes away my all headaches,

After she ghosts me,

I make promises to me every time,

Then she comes back and ask for something,

And I break my promises every time,

My promises not to look at her,

Not to think of her,

But she is relief to all my pains,

So how can I not think of her ?

Now-a-days she talks to me the way I used to talk to her,

She isn't the same no more, why she's acting so absurd,

I wanted to say her many things, but now I don't get the words,

Sometimes I don't feel the pain, sometimes I want to get me hurt,

I used to pray so that she talks to me,

I wanted her, barefoot, on the grass, to walk with me,

But now when I killed all my dreams that I've seen with her,

She's back with a Hi 🤝....

10. RELIGIOUS TALK

I'm an atheist, but a proud Hindu,
I've seen Kashmir, what she's been through,
She was a heaven, they made her a hell,
A sweet motherland, didn't even cry for help,

Now, I'm a changed man, so fuck secularism,
I see one true religion, that's Hinduism,
Hate to you other ones, cause I've seen same for mine one,
I'm not a love representative, so I ain't gonna divide love,

We are not like others, so taboo and haraam,
We see divine presence in everything,
Our Gods are not angry like yours,
We see godly presence in every being,

Not forcing women to hide faces,
Not harassing them and giving bruises,
Not forcing them to convert religions,
You come and see the western ones choosing Hinduism,

No triple divorces,
No negative forces,
No hate for others,
We earn for resources,

You better improve your mind state,
Better improve your vision rather than reproducing a herd of mindless,
You better improve your own fate,
Better improve your past rather than reproducing a herd of mindless,
A herd of mindless,
I know some of you're great minds,
But most of you're mindless,

11. FRIENDSHITS

I have my own highs and my own lows,
I don't know what to do when some friends turn foes,
I'm too bad that I too soon make people close,
And everyone that betrays me, they fucking know,

I don't see the same effort as me by them,
They see me as a clown,
I didn't care cause I thought they were my people,
Tried to make them laugh even if I was down,

They reach me when they need me,
I reach them cause I need them,
But there's difference between our needs,
Their needs were selfish, and mine were selfless,
I was counting on them, & see now I'm helpless,

Sometimes I feel like, they don't need me,
Sometimes they're too happy without me,
Every time they fail to read me,
Every time I was down, there was no one to look out me,

They want my presence, but with my changed personality,

They don't need real me,

I am my own essence, always down still smiling,

No one can be real me,

A circle that instead of freeing me, ends me,

I don't need it,

Hate comments?, I don't read it,

Fake rumours?, I don't feed it,

Harsh truths?, Upto you...

(Pen Breaks)

12. QUESTIONS

Sometimes, eyes open, I'm awake on those loneliest nights,
I hate to face me, cause those are the scariest fights,
See the joke, I switch off the lights in search of light,
Is it the doke, why I'm not happy even if I'm right?

I left the company I used to accompany,
Is it only time you can't buy with money?
Can we buy people?, no
Can we buy memories?, no
Can we buy love?, no
Is the life tough?, yes

We need some space but when we get it why we feel alone?
One morning when you'll wake up, your everything will be gone,

We promise to live together,
But what if they die before you?
You say you love them and like spending times,
But what if tomorrow they start to bore you?

Will you break the promise?
Will you change yourself and adjust,
Or will you'll be an honest?
And will make the situation adverse?

13. I KNOW

The day I'll go from this place,
Some will raise toast for me,
Some will make a roast for me,
They say they love me the way I am,
But what about their hate that I see,

Have seen snakes in the circle,
Black sheep in this fake college family,
Never gone physical, my anger's so verbal,
Even when I'm hurt, I live so happily,

It's just my Point Of View, POV
Sometimes I feel I'm Out On Duty, OOD,
I don't wanna talk no more, I ain't me,
Mirror is my enemy, this shit is so-so deep,

I know, I can't be what they want from me,
I know, they don't deserve me, so I'm free,
Free from all the friendshits,
I'm so me, when suddenly reality hits,
Down & depressed, forgotten like a fallen king,
Down & depressed, forgotten like a fallen king,
Down & depressed,

14. THANKS

My badluck was a hitman with a sniper aimed on my head,
Sometimes I felt like nobody cares even if I'm dead,
But thanks to everyone who always hold my back,
The ones who made me smile when my days were bad,
The ones who never judged me on skills that I used to lack,
The ones who made me feel special, even if I wasn't that,

Thanks to my parents, to love me the way I don't deserve,
Thanks to the guardians, who became my angel,
At any point of time,
Thanks to the one, who gave me a lesson and became strangers,
Thanks to the one, who fought for me, my debate-enders,

Thanks to MGF, for paying my fees,
Thanks to MGM, for giving me wings,
Thanks to GF, for giving me love,
Thanks to my FAMILY, for ignoring my sins,

Thanks for the love, I never seek ,
Thanks for the power, I felt never weak,
Thanks for the hands, I never ask,
Thanks for the hands, I never ask,
Thanks for the hands....

15. CONCEPT OF LIFE

I have been happy in a quiet room,
And have been quiet in a happy one,
We are running AIs and acting wise,
But are we forgetting that still we're Homo-Sapiens?

Being betrayed on my back still carried smile on my face,
Was trying so hard to be alive, cannot forget those days,
Was counting on the people who were never mine,
Don't meet me and ask me about me, cause I'm always lying,
Even I walk far away, still some facts will be undenyng, Reality always hits harder, doesn't matter if conditions aren't underlying,

If I say I've seen life, maybe it'll partial truth,
You can win everything, still time will remain brute,
One day I used to sleep in a room with a cool AC,
And other day was unable to even sleep under a running fan,
They say believe in the god,
But how the fuck I when I see my mom crying,

Sometimes I used to hate my dad,
But when I grew older, I understand,
You can't hate someone who does everything just for you,
Even if situations adverse, he tries to make it reverse for you,

Sometimes while being happy, suddenly I become so mad,
Sometimes the things don't even bother me, sometimes that drives me mad,

Aren't these just the mood swings?

But why someone else pay for our mood?

Why someone else feels bad cause we were rude,

I just wanna make my people proud,

When they look at me,

I just wanna make them say Aryan you did it man,

When they walk with me,

They don't have to look it down,

I wish to complete their every demands, their every dreams,

I wish to be there in their every lows, in their every highs,

I want to be that one person, that is not just part of their lives but also part of their lies....
